DAR Asks Probe of Pentagon Suspension of Army Major

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Daughters of the American Revolution asked a congressional investigation today of the Army's suspension of Maj. Archibald E. Roberts, but Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., said he favored leaving the investigation to the Army at this time.

Thurmond, who has been battling for months against what he called Pentagon muzzling of military officers, said he thought an Army investigation was appropriate if Roberts had in fact questioned the loyalty of Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles and Asst. Secretary of State G. Mennen Williams.

Roberts, in an off-the-cuff speech to the DAR Thursday, said Yorty once was described to the House Committee on Un-American Activities as one member of a Communist faction in the California Legislature. He described Williams, former governor of Michigan, as having leftist leanings.

Chairman Francis W. Walter, D-Pa., of the House Committee on

Un-American Activities told a reporter committee records "disclose that Mayor Yorty not only does not have a Communist background but has been one of the most effective fighters against internal communism in this country."

Roberts, 46, is a former aide to ex-Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker who was relieved of his command in Germany last year on a finding that he had made derogatory public statements about prominent Americans.

Yorty issued a statement in Los Angeles saying the charge was ridiculous. He said it "serves mightily the Communist objective" by causing confusion which aids subversives.

Williams is traveling in Africa and was unavailable for comment. Thursday night, Roberts got word from his commander at Ft. Lee, Va., Col. John B. Hines, that he "has been suspended from performance of military duty pending further investigation of statements made in a public speech in Washington."

Roberts said he had not been under orders to submit his speech for Pentagon clearance. And he told a reporter "an investigation to me means that they will hear both sides. I hope that we will have the truth. I've made my position clear."

Roberts delivered his off-the-cuff talk to the DAR after the text of his originally planned address was denied clearance by the Pentagon. It was to have dealt with the "pro-blue" troop information program which Roberts says he drafted for Gen. Walker.

The program was used when Walker commanded the 24th Infantry Division in Germany. Stories in a publication called "Overseas Weekly"—which also drew Roberts' fire in the DAR speech—led to a Pentagon investigation of Walker's program.

Walker was later relieved of his command and admonished by the Army on grounds he tried to influence the votes of his men in the 1960 congressional election, and made derogatory remarks about prominent Americans. He quit the Army last Nov. 2 and now seeks the Democratic nomination for governor of Texas.

U.S., Soviet Spacemen Due For Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet cosmonaut Gherman Titov and American astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. will have a chance to compare notes on outer space at a scientific meeting here April 30.

The Washington Post reported today that Maj. Titov had asked for a visa to visit the United States April 30-May 7 and that State Department officials said the request would be granted.

Glenn is scheduled to deliver a paper on his triple earth orbit of last Feb. 20 at the first day of the third International Council of Scientific Unions. It is believed Titov will present a paper the same day, presumably dealing with his 17-orbit flight of last Aug. 6.

Russia's first cosmonaut, Yuri Gagarin, orbited the earth once on April 12, 1961.

Reds Threaten Walkout if U.S. Holds Air Tests

American Envoy Says Russian Stand Dims Ban on Experiments

GENEVA (AP)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin threatened today to walk out of the 17-nation general disarmament conference if the United States conducts atmospheric nuclear weapons tests in the Pacific in the next week or so.

He made the comment to newsmen after a Good Friday session of the disarmament conference.

In the conference room itself Zorin said the American tests would bring about an extremely tense international atmosphere.

U.S. Ambassador Arthur H. Dean made it clear the United States tests undoubtedly will be held because of what he called the unyielding Soviet attitude. Dean said the Soviet Union appears to have killed any chance for a quick agreement on an internationally enforced nuclear weapons test ban.

Both Dean and British Minister of State Joseph B. Godberg refused a Russian call for an unofficial moratorium on tests. The Russians remained adamant against international inspection and control.

The United States, Dean said, "has learned its lesson with regard to a voluntary, unpoliced moratorium which can be broken at will by the Soviet Union on any pretext it wishes to dream up."

The Big Three haggled again about the testing question. Then, though Zorin had indicated Thursday he might try to force continued sessions over the weekend, the conference recessed for the Easter holidays. It will reconvene Tuesday.

Zorin told the session the projected American tests would collapse the conference and nobody would forgive the United States and Britain if this happened.

Later, speaking to newsmen, Zorin said the tests "would inflict an irreparable blow to the negotiations." Asked to explain what he meant by irreparable, Zorin said:

"There will be no negotiations, that is all."

Reporters reminded Zorin that he had said the American tests would make the five-week Geneva negotiations unfruitful. They asked the Soviet delegate if he would still participate. Zorin replied:

"The Soviet Union will not take part in unfruitful negotiations." Only one tentative step forward was taken by the conference before it recessed. Even the meaning of that action was subject to doubt.

The three nuclear powers agreed to accept a vaguely worded neutralist compromise proposal for a test ban treaty as a basis of negotiations.

West Alarmed By Algerian Rebel Army

LE KEF, Tunisia (AP) — The tough Algerian rebel army in exile, held by an iron discipline and indoctrinated by political commissars, is emerging as the most powerful force of an independent Algeria.

Western diplomats are alarmed by its close resemblance to armies of the Communist nations of Eastern Europe and Asia.

It is a revolutionary army in which officers do not wear the insignia of their rank and are addressed by soldiers as brothers.

About 30,000 men of the Algerian army camp in Tunisia and 12,000 in Morocco. They will be the main force behind the rebel provisional government after a self-determination referendum that is expected to give Algeria independence.

Virtually all the heavy equipment of the rebel forces comes from Soviet or Red Chinese factories. Most officers have been trained in the Arab military academies of the Middle East and behind the iron curtain.

Giant slogans in training camps remind the soldiers that "independence is only one stage of the revolution."

Sturdy Cross Marks This Holy Day, Reminding Christians of Sinfulness

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

A cross marks the day. It was a large, sturdy cross, made of wood, on which a man was hung on another Friday 2,000 years ago until he was dead.

Today, Christians around the earth commemorate that event in awe and penitence.

To Christians, their Lord suffered — because of and for the ultimate devotion of God to errant human beings.

This is Good Friday, the observance of an interlude in history which to believers disclosed their own sinfulness — even to death.

"Greater love has no man than this," the old account reads, "than he lay down his life for his friends." It is a somber, yet strangely magnificent occasion, the great offering, the sublime sacrifice on man's behalf. Altars are bare. Vestments are dark. And heads bow low in meditation.

The victim was Jesus, whom Christians regard as the man by whom divinity came directly to the world out of concern for it.

He was considered a heretic by the religious leaders of the day. The government found him dangerous, and condemned him. He was marched to the "place of the skull" outside Jerusalem and hung.

Various kinds of crosses symbolize the event. At the time it occurred, three types of crosses were used for crucifixions by the Romans. It was the crudest form of execution known, reserved for criminal slaves and insurrectionists.

The crosses were sometimes shaped like a capital X, what is now called the St. Andrew's Cross. Sometimes a straight-topped cross was used, shaped like a capital T, without the tip flanges.

But the third sort of cross in use, the presently termed Latin Cross with the overlapping vertical and horizontal sections, apparently was the type on which Scripture mentions a sign placed above His head, and early Christian writers speak of the four extremities of the cross, thus indicating the so-called Latin Cross.

According to early documents, the upright stake was fixed in the ground at the place of execution. So it is likely the condemned man carried only the crossbeam on the way to his death.

This was the usual practice, contrary to later Christian art showing Jesus carrying the entire cross. At the site of execution, His arms were strapped to the crossbeam and His hands nailed to it.

Then the crossbeam was raised to the upright by pulleys, and strapped into a notch. The victim was put astride a peg extending from the upright, and his feet nailed down.

In this position, modern studies have shown, the weight of the body transfixes the rib cage, so that breathing is possible only by muscles of the diaphragm.

Death comes slowly from exhaustion, cramps and paralyzing tension.

Before it came, He said, "Father forgive them for they know not what they do." Somehow, in the torment of those hours, Christians believe this faultless, just man, this son of God took on himself the burden of man's injustice — for man's sake.

Grace—the divine clemency—was bestowed.

In the midst of it, long ago, the sky darkened, the wind rose, and the earth shuddered, the record says, and men were afraid at their doings. "It is finished," Jesus said. Then He shouted with a loud voice, and His head sagged.

He was dead. A soldier ran Him through with a spear. As His broken-hearted followers carried Him to a tomb, the officer in charge of the execution murmured, "Surely this man was the son of God."

Pilgrims from Over Globe Bow Reverently at Calvary

JERUSALEM, Jordan Sector (AP)—Arab Christians and pilgrims from around the globe bowed before the traditional site of Calvary at dawn this Good Friday inside the walled city.

Church bells rang out across the hills of Jerusalem. Skies were overcast and drizzling.

A few hundred yards from the worshippers in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre — built on the ground where Christians believe Christ was buried—Jordanian desert troops peered from sand-bagged medieval walls across no man's land to the Israeli sector of Jerusalem. But the frontier was peaceful for the day.

Thousands of devout pilgrims were expected to follow Christ's last walk later in the day, bent under the weight of full size crosses along the twisting, stone-flagged Via Dolorosa that marks the Way of the Cross.

Jerusalem's hotels and private houses in the old walled quarter were jammed with visitors for Easter week, which this year stretches to April 29, when Eastern churches celebrate the resurrection. The Tourist Bureau estimated about 6,000 pilgrims were here already.

Covered alleyways and bazaars —barely wide enough for burdened donkeys to pass — were thronged with Americans and Europeans in newly bought Arab headaddresses, nuns and monks in robes from faraway lands, dark-faced Ethiopians, Copts from Egypt, and Armenians from Lebanon.

At the foot of the Mount of Olives Thursday night believers knelt in candlelit darkness around the huge rock where tradition says Jesus underwent his agony after Judas betrayed Him.

Anglicans and Arab evangelists held devotions in the same hillside garden. Lutherans walked from their church through the gate in the city wall to services in the onion-domed Russian church at the foot of the mountain. Other worshippers gathered in churches throughout the city. More than 100 Christian sects are represented in the city.

Roman Catholics worshipped in the massive Church of the Holy Sepulchre, so weakened by age that the whole structure threatens to collapse.

In a formal statement released Thursday, they charged Kennedy with ordering or supporting one action last week that "imperiled basic American rights, went far beyond the law, and were more characteristic of a police state than a free government."

These "punitive, heavy handed and frightening" actions amounted to "a display of naked political power never before seen in this nation," said the statement issued on behalf of Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, House GOP Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana and other GOP leaders in Congress.

It drew a quick reply from the Senate's assistant Democratic leader, Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota. He said the GOP leaders had again shown "an inborn, uncanny ability to get on the wrong side of major issues."

Eight companies announced $6-a-ton price increases last week but later backed down in the face of strong opposition from the President, who said such increases were not in the public interest.

U.S. Transport Crashes Near Communist Border

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A U.S. Air Force twin-engine transport crashed today near the 17th Parallel dividing Communist North Viet Nam from the pro-Western South Viet Nam.

An Air Force spokesman said one of the C123 plane's three crewmen was injured and was taken to a hospital at the coastal town of Da Nang, about 360 miles north of Saigon. The other two crew members apparently escaped injury.

CITY SCHOOL pupils were making the most of their Easter vacation today... Classes will resume Tuesday.

Rains Change Farm Pattern

South Ohio Behind North in Planting

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Recent rainfall patterns here have caused a reverse in Ohio's spring planting schedule.

Southern Ohio farmers normally prepare and seed crops two to three weeks ahead of those in northern Ohio. As of now, the farmers in the north are generally two weeks ahead of southern Ohio farmers.

The reverse schedule is due primarily to recent rainfall. Precipitation at observation stations in northwestern Ohio ranged from half an inch to close to an inch during the first two weeks in April, according to J. R. Kendall, statistician in charge at the Ohio Crop Reporting Service.

While in southeastern Ohio, more were tallied in the same rainfall readings of two inches or period.

The dry conditions in northern sectors has speeded oats and sugar beet seeding, Kendall said. By mid-week, oats seeding was 55 per cent more than at the same time last year. Sugar beets were 40 per cent planted, compared to 20 per cent in 1961.

Most central Ohio farmers are further along with field work than at comparable times the last two springs when rain slowed operations.

Farmers have indicated they are going to plant about eight per cent more acres in corn this year than in 1961, the first year of the feed grain program. The expected 2,945,000 acres still is 17 per cent below average.

Signups for this year's program show 55,969 Ohio farmers plan taking 981,000 acres out of corn production. They have received $19,646,850 in advance payments on the idled land and are entitled to about the same amount in final payments if they fully comply with program provisions.

Participation in the Wheat Stabilization Program trimmed Ohio's soft red winter wheat acreage to 1,255,000, the smallest since records were started in 1896.

Average U.S. Family Income Said $7020

WASHINGTON (AP)—The average American family made $180 more last year, raising its annual income to $7,020.

And even counting increased living costs, the Commerce Department said in its announcement Thursday, the average family was still $90 better off than in 1960. But the increase wasn't as big as the one registered last year when incomes were up $230 over 1959.

In 1947, the average family income in the United States was $4,130 a year. The 1961 figures represent an increase of 70 per cent. If inflation is figured in, the department said, the average family is still 30 per cent better off than in 1947.

Salan Capture Hard Blow to Secret Army

Death Penalty Awaits Veteran, Now Being Whisked to Paris

ALGIERS (AP) — Fugitive ex-Gen. Raoul Salan, leader of the terrorist Secret Army Organization, was arrested today in the heart of Algiers, French officials announced.

Salan, a 62-year-old army veteran who has seen service in virtually all corners of the world was sentenced to death in absentia for the putsch as was his colleague, ex-Gen. Edmond Jouhaud.

When reports spread that Salan was captured, heavy troop reinforcements were concentrated around Reghaia, an air base near Rocher Noir headquarters.

Salan already was aboard a plane bound for Paris when the announcement was made, the spokesman said.

A government official said Salan was taken when riot troops and police sealed off a small section in downtown Algiers and launched a search of cars, buildings and passersby.

Capture of the 62-year-old former general who vowed to keep Algeria French came as the French government sharply stepped up action here against his secret army.

There were reports Salan had been captured early in today's search but that he refused to admit his identity and riot police officers who arrested him were not sure themselves it was Salan.

Unofficial reports leaked out that Salan had been taken, but it was not until several hours later that the Rocher Noir headquarters of the French-Moslem provisional executive disclosed the arrest.

There were rumors Salan had been denounced by one of his followers and that police and troops had been able to start the sealing-off operation in time to net him. This could not be confirmed, but it seemed likely that Salan, who has been living in apparent immunity from arrest for more than a year, had been turned in by a disgruntled follower.

Salan was apparently taken to Reghaia, a French military air base outside Algiers where he either admitted his identity or his captors made sure of it.

If it was true that authorities were not able at first to identify him, the case had a striking similarity to the capture of ex-Gen. Jouhaud. It was several hours after Jouhaud's arrest before his identity was established.

Salan's arrest strikes a hard blow at followers of the secret army.

Clay Products Union To Eye New Contract

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — The policy committee of the United Brick and Clay Workers Union will meet at Dennison Saturday to consider a contract offer from representative of clay products manufacturers in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana.

Announcement of the meeting was made here today by Edward Bauer of Wellsville, international representative of the union. He said management and union representatives met today to clarify details of the offer. He did not disclose what the proposed pact included.

The old three-year contract covering 2,750 workers expired at midnight April 7. The union policy committee met at Dennison April 8 and turned down a contract offer from management, but agreed to continue work on a day-to-day basis pending negotiations on a new pact.

However, the union local at the Robinson Clay Products Co. plant in Mogadore went out on strike April 9 in defiance of the committee's stand. It is one of the 25 locals involved in the negotiations. Workers at the other plants covered by the talks have left their jobs in the meantime, Bauer said.

He said the union is seeking an increase in wages, a better insurance program and other benefits.

The current wage scale was not announced.

Driver Handed Stern Penalty

Crash with Cruiser Results in Arrest

A motorist involved in a collision with a Pickaway County Sheriff's Department cruiser last night was handed a stern penalty today in Circleville Municipal Court on an accusation of driving under the influence of intoxicants.

The charge was leveled against Carl A. Tobin, 44, of 361 E. Ohio St. He was fined $500 and costs, sentenced to six months in jail and had his driving rights removed for three years.

Judge Sterling M. Lamb imposed the maximum sentence on the intoxicated driving charge and added another fine of $25 and costs on a failure to yield the right of way count.

According to court records, it was Tobin's fourth conviction for driving under the influence.

THE ACCIDENT was at 9:35 p. m. Thursday at Route 23 and D County Road 511, about four miles north of Circleville. The sheriff's cruiser was operated by Deputy George Linder, 43, Route 2, Orient.

Neither driver was injured.

Sheriff Walton W. Spangler said Tobin, headed south on Route 23, attempted to make a left turn onto Road 511 without stopping. Linder's cruiser, headed north on Route 23, struck the other auto in the side, he said.

Both vehicles were heavily damaged. Sheriff Spangler reported.

Rocketship's Pilot 'Stuck' after Flight

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Test pilot Joe Walker took the X15 on what was described as a warmup flight to 150,000 feet and 3,920 miles an hour and returned safely—to find himself trapped.

After the black rocket ship skidded to a landing on a dry lake bed here Thursday, Walker radioed: "I can't get the lid open!"

His cockpit canopy was stuck. Technicians pried it open with a tool predating the space age—a screwdriver.

Signs Are Seen Khrush's Policy Is Hardening

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some highly placed U.S. officials are becoming concerned over signs that Soviet Premier Khrushchev is hardening his policies toward the West and moving back into a closer relationship with Red China.

This concern is still speculative. It arises out of a careful analysis by diplomatic experts during the past week of an intensely personal letter, which seems to reflect indignation and frustration, that Khrushchev sent to British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

The feeling is reinforced by a knowledge that Red China is in difficult economic circumstances, due to the failure of Peiping's Great Leap Forward program.

Chinese officials admitted the failure within the past week. This is taken to mean that in addition to reorganizing its development program, China has an urgent need for outside assistance which can only come from Russia and other Communist bloc countries.

As Western leaders see the situation, any intensification of the long-time Soviet-Chinese dispute can be expected to produce Soviet maneuvers for an improvement in relations with the West.

Conversely, an accommodation between Peiping and Moscow, which now seems to be in Peiping's temporary interest, may produce a toughening of Soviet policies toward the Allies.

Officials said speculation that Khrushchev is hardening his attitude, however, is so far offset by other evidence that points in a contrary direction.

This evidence is found chiefly in the recent drop in tensions over Berlin and in the continuing friendly approach of the Soviet government to talks with the

3 Boys Killed Along Highway

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Three Belmont County boys were killed Thursday night when they were struck by a automobile a half-mile northwest of Holloway.

Sheriff's deputies identified the boys as David Eugene Vetusla, 10; Roy Lee Thompson, 15, and his brother, Dennis James Thompson, 11.

Officers said the boys had been riding their bicycles along Ohio 331, en route to their home in Holloway, about 11 p.m. when the area was hit by a sudden snow flurry.

The boys decided to hitch-hike a ride, and a truck had stopped for them. They were putting their bicycles on the truck when an automobile struck them. The deputies said the driver of the car did not see the boys beside the truck.

Moslems Flee Violence

CALCUTTA, India (AP)—More than 1,000 Moslems have fled to East Pakistan from Malda following Hindu-Moslem violence in which 12 Moslems were reported killed.

Pilgrims from Over Globe Bow Reverently at Calvary

JERUSALEM, Jordan Sector (AP)—Arab Christians and pilgrims from around the globe bowed before the traditional site of Calvary at dawn this Good Friday inside the walled city.

Church bells rang out across the hills of Jerusalem. Skies were overcast and drizzling.

A few hundred yards from the worshippers in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre — built on the ground where Christians believe Christ was buried—Jordanian desert troops peered from sand-bagged medieval walls across no man's land to the Israeli sector of Jerusalem. But the frontier was peaceful for the day.

Thousands of devout pilgrims were expected to follow Christ's last walk later in the day, bent under the weight of full size crosses along the twisting, stone-flagged Via Dolorosa that marks the Way of the Cross.

Jerusalem's hotels and private houses in the old walled quarter were jammed with visitors for Easter week, which this year stretches to April 29, when Eastern churches celebrate the resurrection. The Tourist Bureau estimated about 6,000 pilgrims were here already.

Covered alleyways and bazaars —barely wide enough for bunched donkeys to pass — were thronged with Americans and Europeans in newly bought Arab headaddresses, nuns and monks in robes from faraway lands, dark-faced Ethiopians, Copts from Egypt, and Armenians from Lebanon.

At the foot of the Mount of Olives Thursday night believers knelt in candlelit darkness around the huge rock where tradition says Jesus underwent his agony after Judas betrayed Him.

Anglicans and Arab evangelists held devotions in the same hillside garden. Lutherans walked from their church through the gate in the city wall to services in the onion-domed Russian church at the foot of the mountain. Other worshippers gathered in churches throughout the city. More than 100 Christian sects are represented in the city.

Roman Catholics worshipped in the massive Church of the Holy Sepulchre, so weakened by age that the whole structure threatened to collapse.

Once Around Roundtown

CIRCLEVILLE'S Hall - Adkins American Legion Post today expressed more than a little satisfaction with the fine response to yesterday's Patriots' Day observance.

Post officials said it was gratifying to hear many church bells ringing and flags flying at 1 p. m. . . . Special tribute went to Truman Eberly for playing the Foreman Chimes at the Courthouse and to Superintendent George Hartman for special programs arranged in city schools . . . It all was part of the Legion's nationwide program to let the "Bells of Freedom" ring on this particular day.

HAS ANYBODY seen an 8-foot Easter rabbit? . . . Marie Wilkin of the Grand Theater is looking for one. . . .

It seems the huge cardboard replica of Mr. Bugs Bunny, placed in front of the movie house to promote an Easter film on Monday, was illegally requisitioned last night by some pranksters . . .

Miss Wilkin, far from pleased with the moonlight antics, said a rope used to secure the decorative cardboard, was cut. . . . The large bunny was constructed here by Lee Smith.

CITY SCHOOL pupils were making the most of their Easter vacation today . . . Classes will resume Tuesday.

Rains Change Farm Pattern

South Ohio Behind North in Planting

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Recent rainfall patterns have caused a reverse in Ohio's spring planting schedule.

Southern Ohio farmers normally prepare and seed crops two to three weeks ahead of those in northern Ohio. As of now, the farmers in the north are generally two weeks ahead of southern Ohio farmers.

The reverse schedule is due primarily to recent rainfall. Precipitation at observation stations in northwestern Ohio ranged from half an inch to close to an inch during the first two weeks in April, according to J. R. Kendall, statistician in charge at the Ohio Crop Reporting Service.

While in southeastern Ohio, more were tallied in the same rainfall readings of two inches or period.

The dry conditions in northern sectors has speeded oats and sugar beet seeding, Kendall said. By mid-week, oats seeding was 55 per cent more than at the same time last year. Sugar beets were 40 per cent planted, compared to 20 per cent in 1961.

Most central Ohio farmers are further along with field work than at comparable times the last two springs when rain slowed operations.

Farmers have indicated they are going to plant about eight per cent more acres in corn this year than in 1961, the first year of the feed grain program. The expected 2,945,000 acres still is 17 per cent below average.

Signups for this year's program show 55,969 Ohio farmers plan taking 981,000 acres out of corn production. They have received $19,646,850 in advance payments on the idled land and are entitled to about the same amount in final payments if they fully comply with program provisions.

Participation in the Wheat Stabilization Program trimmed Ohio's soft red winter wheat acreage to 1,255,000, the smallest since records were started in 1896.

Average U.S. Family Income Said $7020

WASHINGTON (AP)—The average American family made $180 more last year, raising its annual income to $7,020.

And even counting increased living costs, the Commerce Department said in its announcement Thursday, the average family was still $90 better off than in 1960. But the increase wasn't as big as the one registered last year when incomes were up $230 over 1959.

In 1947, the average family income in the United States was $4,130 a year. The 1961 figures represent an increase of 70 per cent. If inflation is figured in, the department said, the average family is still 30 per cent better off than in 1947.

Salan Capture Hard Blow to Secret Army

Death Penalty Awaits Veteran, Now Being Whisked to Paris

ALGIERS (AP) — Fugitive ex-Gen. Raoul Salan, leader of the terrorist Secret Army Organization, was arrested today in the heart of Algiers, French officials announced.

Salan, a 62-year-old army veteran who has seen service in virtually all corners of the world was sentenced to death in absentia for the putsch as was his colleague, ex-Gen. Edmond Jouhaud.

When reports spread that Salan was captured, heavy troop reinforcements were concentrated around Reghaia, an air base near Rocher Noir headquarters.

Salan already was aboard a plane bound for Paris when the announcement was made, the spokesman said.

A government official said Salan was taken when riot troops and police sealed off a small section in downtown Algiers and launched a search of cars, buildings and passersby.

Capture of the 62-year-old former general who vowed to keep Algeria French came as the French government sharply stepped up action here against his secret army.

There were reports Salan had been captured early in today's search but that he refused to admit his identity and riot police officers who arrested him were not sure themselves it was Salan.

Unofficial reports leaked out that Salan had been taken, but it was not until several hours later that the Rocher Noir headquarters of the French-Moslem provisional executive disclosed the arrest.

There were rumors Salan had been denounced by one of his followers and that police and troops had been able to start the sealing-off operation in time to net him. This could not be confirmed, but it seemed likely that Salan, who has been living in apparent immunity from arrest for more than a year, had been turned in by a disgruntled follower.

Salan was apparently taken to Reghaia, a French military airbase outside Algiers where he either admitted his identity or his captors made sure of it.

If it was true that authorities were not able at first to identify him, the case had a striking similarity to the capture of ex-Gen. Jouhaud. It was several hours after Jouhaud's arrest before his identity was established.

Salan's arrest strikes a hard blow at followers of the secret army.

Clay Products Union To Eye New Contract

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — The policy committee of the United Brick and Clay Workers Union will meet at Dennison Saturday to consider a contract offer from representative of clay products manufacturers in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana.

Announcement of the meeting was made here today by Edward Bauer of Wellsville, international representative of the union. He said management and union representatives met today to clarify details of the offer. He did not disclose what the proposed pact included.

The old three-year contract covering 2,750 workers expired at midnight April 7. The union policy committee met at Dennison April 8 and turned down a contract offer from management, but agreed to continue work on a day-to-day basis pending negotiations on a new pact.

However, the union local at the Robinson Clay Products Co. plant in Mogadore went out on strike April 9 in defiance of the committee's stand. It is one of the 25 locals involved in the negotiations. Workers at the other plants covered by the talks have left their jobs in the meantime, Bauer said.

He said the union is seeking an increase in wages, a better insurance program and other benefits.

The current wage scale was not announced.

Medics Hold New Hope for Heart Patients

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Medical research reports offered new hopes today for male heart attack victims and babies born with inoperable heart conditions.

Dr. Jeremiah Stamler and associates of Chicago told a symposium on coronary heart disease in Philadelphia Wednesday that female sex hormones apparently can give many men extra years of life after a heart attack.

At the same time, in St. Louis, four Stanford University surgeons reported a giant step forward toward heart surgery outside the body, which they said they believed might help many of the 15,000 babies born annually in the United States with inoperable heart conditions.

Stamler told the Hahnemann Medical College symposium that used a preparation of natural, mixed female hormones, or estrogens, in a five-year study among 275 middle-aged men.

He said that among men who suffered a single, uncomplicated heart attack, only seven per cent taking the hormone died within five years, compared with 17 per cent not treated. Statistically, he said, this represented a reduction of 59 per cent in the mortality rate.

In St. Louis, the Stanford surgeons said they had removed dogs' hearts for as long as two hours, then replaced them without apparent harm to the animals.

"So far the experiments have been successfully carried out on four dogs, which are still alive from five to nine months after the operations," the surgeons told the annual meeting of the American Thoracic Society.

The report, presented by Dr. Edward J. Hurley, said the technique may be the first step toward operations in which a patient's heart is cut out of his body to correct serious heart defects.

Stamler, director of the Chicago Board of Health's heart disease control, said female hormone was used because women seem to have an inbuilt resistance to coronary arteries, at least until after menopause when their production of female hormones declines.

He said the hormone (trade name Premarin) produced feminizing effects in the men, such as breast enlargement, and made some of them impotent but it did not harm their health.

This Is What District Vets Want To Know

Questions of interest to ex-service men should be given to Pickaway County Veterans Service Officer, James Shea. His office is in the basement of the Courthouse.

Q — I am a World War II veteran, with GI term insurance. Can I convert part of my $10,000 term insurance to a permanent plan?

A — You may convert as little as $1,000 or more in multiples of $500, such as $1,500 for $2,500 at one time.

Q — My husband died in active service during World War II. I receive monthly checks from his GI Insurance. If I remarry, will I lose the balance of the insurance or am I still eligible to receive it?

A — You are still eligible. A widow's remarriage in no way voids her entitlement to the insurance proceeds. Although it does bar her from continued compensation benefits.

Q — How long does a veteran have in which to seek a waiver of an overpayment request from the Veterans Administration?

A — The waiver must be sought by the veteran within one year following the date of the VA notice that the overpayment existed.

Q — Who gets the money allowance from the VA where a child is taking courses under the War Orphans Education program, the student or the parent or guardian?

A — Usually the allowance is paid to the guardian of the young man or woman going to school. There are, however, cases where the money may be paid to the young person directly.

Roberts, who was Walker's public information officer, was relieved of his overseas assignment and made a supply officer at Ft. Lee. He's a native of Denver and a 23-year Army veteran.

The Army notified Roberts last Saturday that his original speech had been denied clearance saying, among other things, that it would reflect adversely on the armed forces, and would tend to revive the Walker controversy. Roberts did not seek further Pentagon action, but the speech he delivered did not mention the Army, the probe program or Walker.

Roberts told the DAR annual meeting "we are at war today and we are losing."

He said the military has no business in politics—but it becomes everybody's business when the mayor of a big city has leftwing leanings. Then he named Yorty.

He said Yorty once was described to the House Committee on Un-American activities as one member of a "Communist faction in the California Legislature."

Of Williams, Roberts said: "And it is the responsibility of everyone when the governor of a great state is of such leftist leanings that his fiscal policies brought that state to the edge of bankruptcy."

Roberts said "We are not concerned with civilian control unless the channel of that control ends in the office of a Soviet official." He said a Soviet, Gregory Petrovich Arkadev, U.N. undersecretary for political and security af-

8 Furniture Firms Fined In Price-Fix

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Eight major manufacturers of metal office furniture were fined $220,000 in U.S. court here Thursday after pleading no contest to charges of conspiracy to fix prices and eliminate competition in the $114-million-a-year industry.

Sperry Rand Corp., New York City, named in three indictments, was fined $75,000 by Judge John O. Henderson. Shaw-Walker Corp., Muskegon, Mich., which answered two indictments, was fined $35,000.

Varying fines were imposed on six other companies, all named in a single indictment. They were: General Fireproofing Co., Youngstown, Ohio, $35,000; Globe-Wernicke Co., Norwood, Ohio, $20,000; Yawman & Erbe Manufacturing Co., Rochester, $20,000; Steelcase Inc., Grand Rapids, Mich., $15,000; All-Steel Equipment, Aurora, Ill., $10,000, and Art Metal Co., Jamestown, $10,000.

Indictments returned by a federal grand jury in 1960 charged that the companies agreed to divide the country into sales zones, to set prices in each zone, and to limit the colors of furniture produced by each manufacturer.

Maximum penalty on the charges in each indictment was a $50,000 fine.

Tighter Narcotics Law Is Suggested

CINCINNATI (AP) — In the opinion of a candidate for the Democratic nomination as state attorney general, Ohio's narcotics laws should be changed so violators will find it harder to get on probation.

Leroy G. Schell of Steubenville told a Democratic luncheon Thursday Ohio was considered a sanctuary for dope peddlers before the legislature passed tougher laws against narcotics offenders. He said these laws should be rigidly enforced.

"child" for the purposes of death pension?

A — The term "child" means a person unmarried and under 18 years of age or under 21 years of age if pursuing a course of instruction approved by the VA or of any age if the VA determines that the child became permanently incapable of self-support by reason of physical or mental defect prior to age 18.

fairs, gets information on all U.N. activities and on all U.S. plans for self defense.

This included U.S. plans of action during the Korean War against the North Korean and Chinese Communists, Roberts said.

The DAR had no comment on either the Roberts speech or the Army action that followed it.

After he spoke, Roberts told newsmen he appeared on authority of a Jan. 31 letter which approved his date with the DAR. He was asked if he felt muzzled by Pentagon rejection of his original text.

"What do you term it?" he replied. "You can say it. I'm not going to put myself on the spot by saying I'm being discriminated against by the Army. It's been my life."

After Roberts spoke, the Army said it would study the case to see what action is justified. The Pentagon said it did not send any officials to monitor the Roberts address.

Roberts was reached at his home by telephone. Asked whether the suspension-investigation order was unusual, he said "I can't say I've ever heard of it before."

Roberts said the Pentagon had notified the DAR that "Maj. Roberts does not necessarily have to secure approval from this headquarters to appear at your meeting. He may accept provided his military duties permit and the provisions of current Department of Defense directives and Army regulations regarding public speaking engagements are followed."

Roberts said he submitted the first speech for clearance in January because there was ample time for Pentagon action and "it was, I think, in the best interests of everyone to submit it in such fashion."

But when it was turned down, he said, "I was in the middle. The DAR had me on the program and at the last minute, four days before the speech was to be given, the Army said no, I couldn't appear." Roberts said he couldn't have submitted the new talk for clearance because he didn't have time to prepare a text.

Roberts said the Army order told him only that he was suspended from duty pending investigation of what he had said. "They didn't say 'for making derogatory remarks about public officials' or anything like that," he said. "This gives them a pretty wide latitude."

And, he added, the notice of suspension did not accuse him of violating any Defense Department or Army rules.

Yorty issued a statement on Roberts' attack.

"This allegation stems from an accusation by Arthur James Kent made back in the 1930s against not only myself but also against the late Gov. Cuthbert Olson, Judge John Clark, and the then Sen. Jack B. Tenney, the then Lt. Gov. Ellis Patterson and others," said Yorty.

"Kent was known as the 'Red burglar' and was in jail at the time he made the affidavit containing this allegation. This affidavit was then flown to Beaumont, Tex., and inserted in the House Un-American Activities (Committee) records by Martin Dies a few days before the California election in 1938 in which I and the others named were running, and this without any notice to the Defamed persons."

"Tenney took it upon himself to later look up Kent who was then again in jail. According to Tenney, Kent admitted he knew none of the persons he defamed."

Johnson Hails U.S. Moon Plan

New Doors To Open To Peace, Prosperity

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson said Thursday the nation's space goal of shooting for the moon and reaching it will also open new doors on earth for peace and prosperity.

Johnson told the American Society of Newspaper Editors meeting here there is a good reason "why we are proposing to spend billions of dollars to go to the moon when there are so many problems to be solved right here on earth."

A moon landing, he said in his prepared remarks, would solve many of earth's problems.

Going to the moon is not merely an effort to satisfy idle curiosity, he said. "We are going to the moon because it is a logical step in the exploration of the universe."

"The steps we have taken already have paid off and paid off handsomely," he added.

Johnson cited as one dividend of the space program the weather satellite Tiros which gave the Gulf Coast three days' advance warning of Hurricane Carla.

The people on the Gulf, Johnson said, "found that the space program—suddenly became very near to them and very dear to them—because it meant saving lives."

Johnson, chairman of the National Aeronautics and Space Council, said there are other dividends being reaped from the investment in space—some already in existence or just over the next orbit.

The building of compact electronics equipment essential to space flight will in the future mean pocket television receivers, better hearing aids and whole new families of household appliances, he said.

"Our studies of man under the stress of space flight are opening new biological concepts that will have great medical value," Johnson said.

"Our communication satellite system will eliminate the need—and the cost—of laying 50 additional cables across the ocean in the next 20 years."

Florida Turtle Captured in Ohio

CLEVELAND (AP) — A museum official says a turtle caught by a 10-year-old boy in the Mentor Lagoon off Lake Erie is just short of the largest of its kind on record.

The turtle, caught by Jimmie Jilek of Mentor-on-the-Lake, was identified Wednesday as a Pseudemys Nelsoni, which is limited to the peninsular area of Florida.

William E. Scheele, director of the Cleveland Museum of Natural History, said it was the first such turtle known to have been caught in the wild outside its habitat. It has a shell 12¾ inches long, just five-eighths of an inch short of the record, Scheele said.

The red-bellied turtle, believed to be 70 years old, was presented to the museum by Jimmy.

Another class of 33 officers began studies in classrooms and jungles of the Panama area April 9 and still more will come in subsequent classes.

Graduates range in rank from second lieutenant to brigadier general.

Counter-insurgency is of prime importance to Latin America, a priority target for Communist efforts.

Although the course of study—provided for military personnel of nations which request it—puts the accent on guerrilla and anti-guerrilla action, it also includes such related items as intelligence and counterintelligence, psychological operations and civil affairs.

The Army says none of the training is designed specifically for any one country and emphasizes that the program is not aimed at training forces to invade Communist Cuba.

Facilities of Ft. Gulick, in the Panama Canal Zone, and the Army's jungle warfare training center—which includes rain forests, mountains, streams and lakes—are used.

As Happy as Kings?

There was a time when a man's day-dreaming found him enjoying the prerogatives of the king. But not anymore. There aren't many kings left, and those who are have a rather sorry time of it.

Consider the case of Philip Mountbatten. He isn't even a king, but he's in trouble. He has returned home from an eight-week trip to South America to find what remains of the empire excited over his behavior in foreign parts.

In an unguarded moment he told somebody that Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express was "a bloody awful newspaper." He later said it was intended as a joke but he did nothing about explaining away the "bloody," a word that evokes icy stares in polite English society.

Later, in all innocence, he went for a swim at the British embassy at Rio de Janeiro. That would have been all right, but he was photographed. Wearing very brief trunks.

Her majesty is reported disturbed. A noble head doesn't even have to wear the crown these days to lie uneasy.

While Big John Slept

Monkeys, mice and dogs have earned their letters as pioneers of the quest for better flying machines. In fact, until a bear named Big John came along, the monkeys, mice and dogs seemed to have cornered the job market on rushing in where angels fear to tread.

Big John has just tested an escape capsule fired by rocket power out of a B58 bomber traveling 1,060 miles an hour. Big John slept through the whole show, including the eight-mile descent by parachute.

Well, even if he had been awake, a story like that would never be believed by the old gang back in Yellowstone Park.

Bachelor Girl Likes Her Lot

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Hollywood's most eligible bachelor girl says her state of single bliss has only one big problem.

"It's the people who keep asking me why I haven't married," said Kim Novak, the world's most lovely lavender blonde.

"They accept singleness in a man but in the case of a woman look for some strange reason.

"In my case it's quite simple. I haven't married—by choice.

"I've met a lot of men in my life, and I expect to meet a lot more, but I haven't met an overwhelming one."

She isn't presently in the mood to be overwhelmed by anything or anybody. In the wake of a most meteoric rise to fame, she is still engaged in that struggle that comes to all who are new to renown—the struggle to retain one's own identity as a human being.

Just a few years ago she was an obscure model. Today she's a top star, has her own film company, two homes, and presumably enough in the bank to tide her over a long lifetime of rainy days.

Such being the situation, she is in a good position to fight against being destroyed by the whipsaws strains of success. She doesn't want to be possessed or dominated by other.

That is why she vigorously resents pressures on her to marry.

"Above all I prize being an individual," she remarked. "People are always trying to change you. I don't feel we have the right to destroy our lives by wrong compromises, by settling for less than we believe in. But you can hold on to yourself—if you just do."

While stardom has cost her much in terms of lost privacy, she said frankly that the money that goes with it has given her more freedom to stay herself.

"But it does get on my nerves—this constant questioning about why I don't marry," she said.

"Being single has certain advantages. Everything is simpler and less complicated.

"I've always been a loner. I adore privacy and being alone.

"The things I like most in life—painting and writing—are the kind of things you don't do with someone looking over your shoulder.

"I'm far happier than if I were married to the wrong person—or even a half-way wrong person. I don't want to get married just because it's the thing to do."

You're Telling Me!

By WILLIAM RITT
Central Press Writer

Come June the United States will observe the 150th anniversary of still another war—that of 1812. Just a reminder that the "good old days" sometimes were as rough, if not rougher, than these?

A man named Crook has been jugged in London on a sentence of burglary. Just trying to live up to his name?

Meanwhile, a Chicago firm reports the theft of some $60,000 worth of candy. Sounds like a mighty sweet haul!

Kenya, Africa, cops report one of their police dogs—Pony, a 10-year old Lionheart—has just captured his 1,000th suspect. The Canadian Mounties sure could use this pooch, since he seems always to get his man.

She believes happiness in marriage is relatively rare because marital partners too often try to change each other.

"Stupid marriages—and the frustrations resulting from them—have much to do with juvenile crime, war—all the restlessness in the world."

So she intends to remain single until that overwhelming man—with all his imperfections—comes along to bring her happiness.

4 Women Win Back Civil Service Jobs

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Four Columbiana County women have won back their civil service jobs in a fight carried to the Ohio Supreme Court.

The court ruled, 4-2 that the four, fired by county commissioners last February, are entitled to their jobs. They are not entitled to back pay, however, the court decided.

The court said the four attained provisional status by taking non-competitive civil service examinations in 1959 and receiving subsequent appointments at a time when eligibility lists were not available. The court voided what it called their dismissals without cause, affirming an appellate court writ of mandamus ordering commissioners to reinstate the four. But the Supreme Court reversed a back pay order on grounds such recovery could not be required through mandamus action.

The women are Patricia Barborak, a photo-film operator; Jane Case, a PBX operator; Camilla Smith, a microfilm operator, and Ruth Wining, a clerk.

In a related case, the Supreme Court dismissed an action by a woman—now deceased—who once sought Camilla Smith's microfilm operator job. The court declared the issue moot since Mrs. Edna Helman died last Oct. 29 and mandamus was not the proper remedy for recovering her salary sought by Charles A. Pike as administrator of her estate.

Inside You and Yours

By BURTON H. FERN, M. D.

A few simple words made Mrs. M.'s Cesarean operation completely painless. She was hypnotized—but not asleep.

Information is constantly funneling into your mind. After weighing new ideas, you tell yourself how to act.

During hypnosis, repeated suggestions gradually focus all your attention of the doctor's voice. You shut out everything else. Because you're alert to his every suggestion, he can open your hidden subconscious mind.

As forgotten memories pour out, you suddenly remember which food is always on the menu when you break out in hives.

By plucking out unreasonable fears, the doctor can free you from homemade psychological prisons. Ever since business worries gave Jack a few bad nights, he's gone to bed afraid that he'd toss and turn all night. And he does!

Through hypnosis he can learn to forget this old fear and doze off the moment his head hits the pillow.

Under hypnosis you can control nerves which usually work automatically. You'll shiver or sweat on command. What a safety valve, should a space ship's temperature control break down!

Long-lasting suggestions can ure muscle ties, food-craving and the tobacco habit. But without these psychological crutches, many people fall into worse habits or serious mental illness.

You don't take crutches away from anyone who needs them to stand.

And you don't erase pain without knowing its cause. Hypnosis can quiet your appendixitis while the appendix bursts into critical illness.

Any hypnotist who guarantees to cure any and all pain is a public menace. That's why hypnosis is reserved for specially trained doctors.

After finding weak blood, a cancerous liver and an infected stomach, one quack began hypnotizing away all pain. In the middle of the trance, his patient suddenly handcuffed him and placed him under arrest.

A real trance had trapped the hypnotist. Under hypnosis the "patient"—a government inspector—had been told that no one else could hypnotize him!

Figures for other steel companies are similar. The principal expenditures of steel companies in recent years have been "investment for modernization." This has been essential to keep the American industry efficient and competitive with the "new" steel plants in Europe and Japan.

A "new" plant in Europe and Japan is one that was either bombed out during World War II or that has become obsolescent and had to be rebuilt, or as in the case of Russian plants, were built entirely new with funds provided by the United States as military or economic aid. American companies have not received such aid, unless orders are regarded as aid.

The American steel industry is not currently sufficiently modern to compete in foreign markets with the newer plants. Were it otherwise, it would not be necessary in 1961 for these companies to spend so much on modernization:

U. S. Steel	$326,800,000
Bethlehem	114,300,000
Republic	89,117,264
Jones and Laughlin	36,599,000
Kaiser	5,272,793
Colorado Fuel and Iron	13,331,178
Allegheny-Ludlum	6,479,000
National	107,106,091
Armco	76,034,000
Youngstown	24,923,191
Inland	18,392,000

The modernization can only come out of earnings or capital. If from earnings alone, it could reduce dividends; if from capital, unless reserves are available, it might imperil the company. On the other hand, if these plants are not modernized, the American product will grow increasingly non-competitive.

Let us take another set of figures:

Between 1957 to 1961, inclusive, United States Steel spent $2,148,300,000 on modernization; a smaller company, such as Inland Steel, spent $383,155,000. As one looks at the list of expenditures for modernization, an expenditure that comes well into several billion dollars. None of this has come out of any government agency but out of sales, profits or capital.

Inflation is a terrible economic condition, but obsolescence is just as bad. The United States is being forced by conditions to import its iron ore from abroad; we should indeed be in bad straits if we were forced to import our steel from abroad because we have permitted our plants to grow obsolete, unready to meet any condition that they may be faced with.

The modernization of plant and equipment is as much a national problem as inflation. Again, it needs to be repeated that a piece-meal approach to our economic problems will not solve them. What is needed is an overall review of where we stand and what needs to be done about it. And the best minds in the country need to be recruited for that task. And the analysis need not be political.

Episcopal Prelate Campaigns To Help Catholic Missionaries

DETROIT (AP)—An Episcopal prelate, demonstrating to an unusual degree the prevailing spirit of cooperation among religious groups, is leading a drive for money from his flock to help train Catholic priests for missionary work in the Congo.

The idea was that of the Very Rev. John J. Weaver, dean of the Episcopal Cathedral of St. Paul. "But the inspiration," said Dean Weaver, "came from God."

Dean Weaver was moved after reading, in a Protestant publication, an account of how 21 members of the Holy Ghost Fathers were massacred by soldiers at Kongo, on the upper reaches of the Congo River, last New Year's day.

First reports put the number of dead at 18, and Dean Weaver set his goal at $180,000—or $10,000 for the training of each replacement. Even that, he admitted might be difficult to achieve.

"It may take three or four years, but we won't stop," he said. "We feel it is worthwhile if it helps in making us all one."

Dean Weaver said the opportunity for the drive came at a time when he and his two canons, or assistants, were contemplating a practical effort in the area of religious unity.

"How can you explain that," he asked, "except that it comes from God?"

Many of the 1,500 parishioners of St. Paul's—including some of the 500 Negroes which make it the largest biracial parish in the U.S.—have responded with contributions.

There is to date no actual accounting of how much money has been collected. Contributions received by Dean Weaver are sent unopened to Father Francis B. Stocker of the Holy Ghost Fathers junior seminary near Ann Arbor, Mich.

"The money is coming in slowly but we feel the drive is off to a good start," said Father Stocker, who himself has helped spread word of the drive by writing personal letters of thanks to contributors and urging them to tell others about it.

Skunks To Carry Radio Transmitters

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—How far a wild animal ranges from home grounds will be studied electrically in Ohio.

Ohio State University's cooperative wildlife research unit will launch the program by strapping tiny transmitters and microphones to skunks in the Delaware Dam Reservoir area.

The university and the Ohio Health Department are cooperating in the venture. Dr. Tony J. Peterle of OSU explained that health officials combatting the problem of rabid skunks want to find how far the animals roam.

On the other hand, if these plants are not modernized, the American product will grow increasingly non-competitive.

Let us take another set of figures:

Between 1957 to 1961, inclusive, United States Steel spent $2,148,300,000 on modernization; a smaller company, such as Inland Steel, spent $383,155,000. As one looks at the list of expenditures for modernization, an expenditure that comes out of profits or capital, it runs well into several billion dollars. None of this has come out of any government agency but out of sales, profits or capital.

Inflation is a terrible economic condition, but obsolescence is just as bad. The United States is being forced by conditions to import its iron ore from abroad; we should indeed be in bad straits if we were forced to import our steel from abroad because we have permitted our plants to grow obsolete, unready to meet any condition that they may be faced with.

The modernization of plant and equipment is as much a national problem as inflation. Again, it needs to be repeated that a piece-meal approach to our economic problems will not solve them. What is needed is an overall review of where we stand and what needs to be done about it. And the best minds in the country need to be recruited for that task. And the analysis need not be political.

Episcopal Prelate Campaigns To Help Catholic Missionaries

DETROIT (AP)—An Episcopal prelate, demonstrating to an unusual degree the prevailing spirit of cooperation among religious groups, is leading a drive for money from his flock to help train Catholic priests for missionary work in the Congo.

The idea was that of The Very Rev. John J. Weaver, dean of the Episcopal Cathedral of St. Paul. "But the inspiration," said Dean Weaver, "came from God."

Dean Weaver was moved after reading, in a Protestant publication, an account of how 21 members of the Holy Ghost Fathers were massacred by soldiers at Kongo, on the upper reaches of the Congo River, last New Year's day.

First reports put the number of dead at 18, and Dean Weaver set his goal at $180,000—or $10,000 for the training of each replacement. Even that, he admitted might be difficult to achieve.

"It may take three or four years," but we won't stop," he said. "We feel it is worthwhile if it helps in making us all one."

Dean Weaver said the opportunity for the drive came at a time when he and his two canons, or assistants, were contemplating a practical effort in the area of religious unity.

"How can you explain that," he asked, "except that it comes from God?"

Many of the 1,500 parishioners of St. Paul's—including some of the 500 Negroes which make it the largest biracial parish in the U.S.—have responded with contributions.

There is to date no actual accounting of how much money has been collected. Contributions received by Dean Weaver are sent unopened to Father Francis B. Stocker of the Holy Ghost Fathers junior seminary near Ann Arbor, Mich.

"The money is coming in slowly but we feel the drive is off to a good start," said Father Stocker, who himself has helped spread word of the drive by writing personal letters of thanks to contributors and urging them to tell others about it.

Skunks To Carry Radio Transmitters

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — How far a wild animal ranges from home grounds will be studied electrically in Ohio.

Ohio State University's cooperative wildlife research unit will launch the program by strapping tiny transmitters and microphones to skunks in the Delaware Dam Reservoir area.

The university and the Ohio Health Department are cooperating in the venture. Dr. Tony J. Peterle of OSU explained that health officials combating the problem of rabid skunks want to find how far the animals roam.

PLUMB LINE TEST — The plumb line shows this teen-ager's near-perfect stance, at left, and dramatizes round shoulders and sagging chest on the right.

You Needn't Be a Slouch; Improve Your Posture Now

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN
Want to straighten Susie out? Send her to college — Barnard — where students are expected to get straight! A's in at least one subject — good posture.

It's part of a required course that cures the sophisticated slump and the fashion-model slouch with shock tactics.

Pictures Tell All
Full-length front and side view pictures are taken of the girls. Then—nasty trick—they're printed on graph paper. Its straight lines show up sloping shoulders, humped backs, protruding tummies and derrieres.

The prints, shown to each girl in private, get instant results. Mentally, the girls straighten up in a minute.

Good Idea
It's a great idea. It's just unfortunate we can't all be faced with pictures showing how we look as we wait for an elevator, stand on line at the supermarket check-out counter or pause to converse with friends.

For sure, the average woman's posture makes the dying swan look straight-necked.

What's to be done about poor posture?

First, be aware of the problem. A glance at your reflection in a plate glass window or a fitting room mirror should make you painfully alert to your posture problems.

Second, get into the habit of thinking about posture. Think about it when you stand and when you sit and magically, you'll find yourself straightening up.

Exercise For Posture
Third, try this routine suggested by Professor Fern Yates of Barnard's Physical Education Department:

Stand against a flat wall so that heels, buttocks, shoulder blades and head touch it. When this position is attained, pull the rib cage back against the wall.

Easy Look
The routine, promises Miss Yates, will develop a nice lift to the body and an ease of position. The latter is important because good posture doesn't mean standing stiffly and rigidly straight. Your body should look comfortable and easy.

What are the rewards of good posture? They're numerous.

Wonderful Results
It gives your entire appearance a look of poise and confidence. It enables you to wear clothes beautifully. It improves the figure.

Just a little thing like standing straight works all these wonders, so why be a slouch?

Dear Abby: Play It Coy, Hello Girl

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a long-distance operator and my voice must be very interesting because I've had many men try to make dates with me. I was never interested because what kind of man would want to go out with a girl he's never seen. Anyway, Christmas Eve a man was trying desperately to phone his girl and he was miserable because he couldn't locate her. He liked my voice and I liked his manner and, to make a long story short, I let him pick me up after work. Well, we are going together now, but when people ask me how I met him, what should I say?

HELLO GIRL
DEAR GIRL: Put that smile in your voice and tell your party to dial information.

DEAR ABBY: I have been reading your column faithfully ever since it began six years ago and I agree with your answers about 99 per cent of the time. But there is one part of your thinking that is full of prejudice, and very narrow-minded, to say the least, and that is marriage outside one's faith. I hope you will be big enough

Kent State President To Resign Post

KENT, Ohio (AP)—Dr. George A. Bowman, who has seen Kent State University's enrollment grow from 891 to 13,000 under his presidency, has announced he will retire next year.

Dr. Bowman told Kent trustees Thursday to start looking immediately for a successor. A battle the past year against the Ohio Legislature for cutting allocation of funds to the university, Dr. Bowman often made speeches aimed at keeping student fees as low as possible.

Retirement is automatic on a president's 70th birthday, which in Dr. Bowman's case is May 11, 1963. He urged the directors not to continue his contract on a year-to-year basis.

Kent State covered 100 acres when Dr. Bowman became president in 1944. With the approval Thursday of the $169,000 purchase of 85 acres adjoining the southeastern border of the campus, the acreage increased to 556.

A building program started by Dr. Bowman has produced $32 million in capital improvements on the campus.

A 1917 graduate of Western Reserve University's Adelbert College, Dr. Bowman was a teacher, coach, athletic director and principal at Zanesville. He later became school superintendent in Chillicothe, Marion, Lakewood and Youngstown.

Housewife Gets Big Headache Fighting Trading Stamp War

By JOY STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP)—Lots of people collect stamps as a part-time hobby. For me, collecting stamps has become a full-time job—and a full-time headache.

I don't save plain old postage stamps. That's easy. My kind of collecting takes planning, energy, concentration, cunning, patience, strategy, footwork and time—mostly time.

You see, I collect trading stamps and all of a sudden it has become a way of life.

More and more stores are enticing me with sticky squares in all colors of the rainbow. Recently another nationwide grocery chain joined the battle, brandishing a plaid sword, and I surrendered meekly.

I'm a prisoner of the stamp war. Time was when I needed milk or bread or eggs I just trotted over to my friendly neighborhood grocer. He gave me the food and I gave him the money. It was a simple transaction which I remember with nostalgia.

These days, when I need groceries, I have to do some fancy figuring that would make a computer flash its tubes in admiration.

First, I study every ad and circular put out by all the stores in and out of the neighborhood.

If store A advertises butter at 74 cents a pound, but store B sells it for 79 cents a pound and throws in 20 stamps, logic tells me store C is the place to buy it because I can get 100 extra stamps by buying five dollars worth of stuff. And never mind what the price of butter is in store C nor how much gas it takes to get there.

Meanwhile, store D tempts me with the pledge that it will present me with 100 free stamps if I just turn up with a special coupon in my hand and a smile on my face.

Not only has my method of shopping changed, but so has my timing. No more theater matinees for me! Wednesday is double stamp day and I want to be right on hand when they pass out the bonus.

Five Points WSCS To Meet Wednesday

The Five Points WSCS will meet 8 p. m. Wednesday in the church basement with Mrs. Richard Phillips, Mrs. Russell Hosler, Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. Marion Riley as hostesses.

Soldiers' Relief Funds Sought in Lawsuit

FREMONT, Ohio (AP) — The Sandusky County Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Commission has resorted to court action to obtain relief funds directly from county commissioners.

For several years, the commissioners have distributed veterans relief funds through regular welfare channels, providing the Soldiers' and Sailors' Commission only administrative funds. The Soldiers' and Sailors' Commission claims it needs $836,961 to pay relief claims the rest of the year.

Since the first Easter, the Cross has remained the one great and enduring symbol of Christianity because it best expresses the meaning of faith. Like a precious jewel, the Cross shines with many facets of truth.

† The Cross signifies the hope of faith. It reveals God's love for us in the sacrifice of His Son. It is our assurance of His promise of salvation.

† The Cross signifies the chal- lenge of faith. It reveals God's love for all men which we must share. It is the motivation of Christian action.

† The Cross signifies the victory of faith. It is the pledge of God's loving purpose in saving the world. It is the source of peace.

What does the Cross mean to you? On Easter — this greatest festival of our Faith, will you come to Church and discover its message?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Christ Reigns

SOME MANIFESTATIONS OF CHRIST'S DIVINE POWER AND BASIC TRUTHS THEY CONFIRM

Scripture—Matthew 28; Hebrews 1.
By N. SPEER JONES
FOR THIS Easter Sunday our lesson connects the resurrexion story with a "letter of faith, counsel and courage" to the Hebrew Christians of Jerusalem who were tempted to return to Judaism.
Of the proof of Christ's resurrection there are many different accounts. Different apostles
mention different appearances
by the Savior, some corroborating each other and some—such as the one cited by Paul in 1 Corinthians 15:7—mentioning
only the bare fact that He appeared to James, and recorded
only here.
All His appearances fell during the 40 days after Easter;
most authorities number them
at 10.
Today's lesson includes
Christ's appearance early Sunday morning to the women at

the tomb and His appearance to
His disciples on the mountain
in Galilee.

In Christ's time, as now, the seventh day of the week was counted as Saturday, the word
for seventh was Sabbath or Sabbath. Mary Magdalene (the
wealthy woman who became a follower of Christ after He delivered her from unclean demons), "the other Mary"
(probably the mother of James)
and other women had been the
last to leave the burial scene
Friday on Saturday, the Sabbath, travel and carrying burdens were forbidden; so it was early Sunday, "the first day," before they returned to the burial
scene. Since that time the Christian church has met on the first day in celebration of
the resurrection.

nesses to Christ's appearance

Christ Reigns

SOME MANIFESTATIONS OF CHRIST'S DIVINE
POWER AND BASIC TRUTHS THEY CONFIRM

Scripture—Matthew 28; Hebrews 1.

By N. SPEER JONES
FOR THIS Easter Sunday
our lesson connects the resurrection story with a "letter of faith, counsel and courage" to the Hebrew Christians of Jerusalem who were tempted to return to Judaism.

Of the proof of Christ's resurrection there are many different
accounts. Different apostles
mention different appearances
by the Savior, some corroborat-
ing each other and some—such as the one cited by Paul in I Corinthians 15:7—mentioning
only the bare fact that He appeared to James, and recorded
only here.

All His appearances fell during the 40 days after Easter;
most authorities number them
at 10.

Today's lesson includes
Christ's appearance early Sunday morning to the women at

after His resurrection. There was no witness to the resurrection itself. As R. C. H. Lenski points out (quoted in "Peloubet's Select Notes," p. 143),
"Those paintings which portray the glorious Saviour coming out of the opened door of the tomb
while the guard fees and falls in dismay at sight of Him, are not in accord with the facts of the case"; the Lord had risen before the removal of the stone.

It is significant that Christ tells the women He will see His disciples in Galilee. All His disciples and most of His other followers were Galileans; Christ
Himself was brought up there.
The Galileans, being a mixed race, were probably more receptive to new ideas than many.
Christ's greetings to the women, translated usually
"Hail!", was the common Greek salutation of the time.

"Worthy is the Lamb Who was slain, to receive power and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!"

the tomb and His appearance to
His disciples on the mountain
in Galilee.

In Christ's time, as now, the
seventh day of the week was
counted as Saturday; the word
for seventh was Sabbath; the Sabbath, Mary Magdalene (the
wealthy woman who became a follower of Christ after He delivered her from indwelling
demons), "the other Mary"
(probably the mother of James)
and other women had been the
last to leave the burial scene
Friday. On Saturday, the Sabbath, travel and carrying burdens were forbidden; so it was
early Sunday, "the first day," before they returned to the burial
scene. Since that time the Christian church has met on
the first day in celebration of
the resurrection.

Despite the numerous witnesses to Christ's appearance
Based on copyrighted outlines produced

When Christ presented Himself to His disciples at Galilee, they fell down and worshipped
Him; only after His resurrection did they adore Him in this manner, signifying recognition of His deity.

His message to His disciples holds for us today: "Tarry ye
... until ye be endued with power from on high" (Luke 24:49), then go forth and preach
the Word.

In the portion assigned from the letter to the Hebrews, written by an unknown author about 65 A.D., the emphasis is on the pre-eminence of Christ over the angels, the superior beings of the Old Testament. Christ's life on earth is referred to as the "purification of sins," after which He "sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on High" (Hebrews 1:3)—a resurrection in the deepest sense.

Local Baha'i Group Lists Weekly Thought

The local Baha'i Faith group will stress this thought for the week:

"We desire but the good of the world and the happiness of nations. That all nations should become one in faith and all men as brothers; that the bonds of affection and unity between the sons of men should be strengthened; that diversity of religion should cease, and differences of race be annulled."

"What harm is there in this? Yet so it shall be; these fruitless strifes, these ruinous wars shall pass away, and the most great peace shall come. Is not this that which Christ foretold? These strifes and this bloodshed and discord must cease, and all men be as one kindred and one family."

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Twice in a row Easter for President Kennedy has been a time of calm and quiet, when even bunnies looked safe and there were no broken eggs.

But now as he rocks in the Florida sun he probably keeps his fingers crossed. Right after Easter in 1961 the lid blew off and kept popping almost until Easter this year.

He was in office less than 75 days then. He's been there 455 days now. All the days in between kept him jumping. If the past is any criterion for the future, he'll be jumping soon again.

Nothing sensational had happened in those 75 days. Kennedy had been wrestling with Congress. There was still murder in the Congo. Communists were still advancing in Laos. Premier Khrushchev was sounding off.

Then, only 10 days after last Easter the Russians sent their first man into a space orbit of the earth, unpleasant news for U.S. prestige. Within 15 days Kennedy banded into disaster — the Cuban invasion.

The States recovered some of its prestige in a hurry by sending its first man into space but only on a short hop last May 5, not an earth orbit. It was another nine months before this country could orbit a man.

But trouble piled up for Kennedy. He met with Khrushchev in Vienna and the critical jockeying over Berlin began. Kennedy, to show there was no American softening, built up defenses, called up Reservists.

Disarmament talks got nowhere, the Russians stunned Kennedy by suddenly resuming nuclear testing, a move now driving Kennedy to new nuclear tests.

In between times the United States poked its nose deeper into Latin-American affairs when Dictator Rafael Trujillo was assassinated in the Dominican Republic.

And it got deeper into Asia with stepped up help for Viet Nam against Communist guerrillas, help that included American fighting men who are not supposed to be fighting unless attacked.

Kennedy had to reorganize the State Department, do some shifting around in his own White House staff, try to get along with some difficult allies like French President Charles de Gaulle, push a new trade program on Congress, plus all the other things he tried to do with Congress.

Almost until this Easter the Russians kept up a dangerous pressure on Berlin and then Kennedy got hit with one of his greatest tests here at home when the steel industry raised prices. He won that fight.

He won it just in time to be able to fly to Florida to relax, which was just about the time the Russians began to take some of the heat off Berlin.

No other crisis is in sight at the moment.

That can hardly last long in a world where, despite a slight pause for Easter and its lesson of unselfishness and new hope, there is so much lunacy, avagery, chicanery, larceny, rapacity, duplicity and stupidity.

Ohioan Linked to Robbery in Kentucky

HAZARD, Ky. (AP) — Three men captured at a roadblock have been charged with armed robbery and assault with intent to kill. The trio, including Russell Reid Gotherman of Hamilton, Ohio, are accused of robbing a doctor and slugging his wife with a pistol.

Horseshoe Inspector Needed in Horse County

DENVER (AP) — Things have changed here in the West where the horse once was king.

The Colorado Racing Commission can't even find anybody to inspect horseshoes.

The job pays $40 a day for the 50-day summer racing season and is going begging. Officially it's known as plater inspector.

Halted Tuesday night shortly after the $1,300 robbery, Gotherman, Cecil Nichols of Lexington and Dale O'Connell of Tampa, Fla., have been bound over to the grand jury.

Police Chief Bud Luttrell said all three denied beating Mrs. L. H. Wagers when she returned home from a church missionary circle meeting. The chief said O'Connell and Gotherman admitted taking part in the robbery but Nichols claimed those two abducted him and forced him to drive the getaway car.

Dr. Wagers and a next-door neighbor, Mervin Eblen, were bound in the doctor's home while it was ransacked of cash and checks. Mrs. Wagers is in serious condition at a Lexington hospital after her arrival was greeted with a blow so hard that the pistol's trigger guard broke.

Luttrell said Gotherman told him he was a parolee from London Correctional Institution in Ohio.

Jackie To Receive 2 India Pandas

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Jacqueline Kennedy is going to get two rare baby pandas to replace the two tiger cubs that died after they were presented to her during her visit to India.

Pandas, natives of the Himalayas, are difficult to locate but two have been found.

Because they must be brought down gradually to sea level, two from the zoo in Hamburg, West Germany, will be sent to Mrs. Kennedy in three or four weeks, U.S. Ambassador John Kenneth Galbraith said today. The two that have been captured in the Himalayas will be sent to Hamburg.

The tiger cubs, presented to the U.S. First Lady by India's International Airline, died of food poisoning. Mrs. Kennedy asked Prime Minister Nehru if they could be replaced by pandas.

Ohioan Linked to Robbery in Kentucky

Latin-American affairs when Dictator Rafael Trujillo was assassinated in the Dominican Republic.

And it got deeper into Asia when stepped up help for Viet Nam against Communist guerrillas, help that included American fighting men who are not supposed to be fighting unless attacked.

Kennedy had to reorganize the State Department, do some shifting around in his own White House staff, try to get along with some difficult allies like French President Charles de Gaulle, push a new trade program on Congress, plus all the other things he tried to do with Congress.

Almost until this Easter the Russians kept up a dangerous pressure on Berlin and then Kennedy got hit with one of this greatest tests here at home when the steel industry raised prices. He won that fight.

He won it just in time to be able to fly to Florida to relax, which was just about the time the Russians began to take some of the heat off Berlin.

No other crisis is in sight at the moment.

That can hardly last long in a world where, despite a slight pause for Easter and its lesson of unselfishness and new hope, there is so much lunacy, avagery, chicanery, larceny, rapacity, duplicity and stupidity.

HAZARD, Ky. (AP) — Three men captured at a roadblock have been charged with armed robbery and assault with intent to kill. The trio, including Russell Reid Gotherman of Hamilton, Ohio, are accused of robbing a doctor and slugging his wife with a pistol.

Horseshoe Inspector Needed in Horse County

DENVER (AP) — Things have changed here in the West where the horse once was king.

The Colorado Racing Commission can't even find anybody to inspect horseshoes.

The job pays $40 a day for the 50-day summer racing season and is going begging. Officially it's known as plater inspector.

Halted Tuesday night shortly after the $1,300 robbery, Gotherman, Cecil Nichols of Lexington and Dale O'Connell of Tampa, Fla., have been bound over to the grand jury.

Police Chief Bud Luttrell said all three denied beating Mrs. L. H. Wagers when she returned home from a church missionary circle meeting. The chief said O'Connell and Gotherman admitted taking part in the robbery but Nichols claimed those two abducted him and forced him to drive the getaway car.

Dr. Wagers and a next-door neighbor, Mervin Eblen, were bound in the doctor's home while it was ransacked of cash and checks. Mrs. Wagers is in serious condition at a Lexington hospital after her arrival was greeted with a blow so hard that the pistol's trigger guard broke.

Luttrell said Gotherman told him he was a parolee from London Correctional Institution in Ohio.

Several Wildlife Proposals Acceptable to Area Nimrods

A group of 22 Pickaway County sportsmen attended the fish and game hearing conducted through the auspices of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, Division of Wildlife, last night at the Fairgrounds.

A number of proposals were presented by the Wildlife department. Most of them were acceptable to the group.

Scioto, Darby, Monroe Earn Tourney Wins

Monroe turned the tables on Logan Elm, 2-0, Darby outlasted Jackson, 12-9, and Scioto edged Walnut, 14-13 in the opening round of the Pickaway county baseball tournament last night.

Mickey Hunt pitched a seven hit shut-out for the Monroe Indians. He fanned 10 of the Logan Elm Braves and gave up four bases on balls.

In a previous meeting between the two clubs before the tournament the Braves won 5-4, scoring their winning run in the last of the seventh.

Dick Dean was the losing pitcher. He allowed seven hits, fanned four and walked three.

JACKSON jumped off to an early lead in their game with Darby, scoring four runs in the first inning. In the fourth they added five more and they led 9-7 going into the final frame. But Darby scored five big runs in the top of the seventh to take the game.

Paul Kreider was the starting pitcher for Darby, but he had to be relieved in the first inning. Jeff Tracy was credited with the win. Ronnie Clifton was the loser.

Tracy aided his own cause when he hit a triple with two on board in the last inning.

In the tilt between Scioto and Walnut, the Buffalos were leading 12-2 going into the last inning.

Ronnie Wilkins the starting pitcher for the Buffalos, walked nine and hit one batter with a pitched ball before he was relieved by Jim Albright. Albright gave up three bases on balls and hit a batter. John Hudson, who was credited with the win the weird game, pitched to only one man. He came on in relief in the final inning after Walnut had scored 11 runs on one hit.

Lee Murphy drove in the winning run for the Buffalos. He had three hits in the game. Gary Ferguson was the losing pitcher.

The tournament continues on Monday, with Scioto playing Ashville on the Walnut diamond and Darby and Monroe tangling at Ashville.

Hanson Hits 9.9 in Century

Tiger Cindermen 76-42 Victors at Franklin Heights

Skip Hanson, Vern Reichmanus and Jimmie Wood were all double winners in Circleville's 76-42 dual meet track triumph at Franklin Heights yesterday.

Hanson turned in a scorching 9.9 in the 100 yard dash with a slight wind at his back. Besides his terrific effort in the Century, he won the 220 in 23.1, placed third in the broad jump and ran on the winning 880 yard relay team.

Wood, a freshman, was another outstanding performer for the Tiger cindermen. He turned in times of 16.3 in winning the 120 high hurdles and 21.2 for a first in the lows. Coach John Current, labeling Wood as a potential champion in the hurdles events, said the wind made it difficult for Wood to maintain his stride between hurdles. Besides the wind Wood ran with the added handicap of a broken hand. His left hand and arm was in a cast.

Vern Reichmanus heaved the shot 44'7" to take that event. His 112 foot toss of the discus was tops.

JOHN PHARR won the 880 yard run and Hedges and Moore tied for first in the pole vault.

Circleville ran an exhibition 480 yard shuttle hurdle relay race. Franklin Heights did not have a team for this event although it will be added to the South Central Ohio League track meet this year.

Current reports that the depth in the track team is beginning to show. Besides the nine firsts which the Tiger thrincads garnered, they had eight seconds and seven thirds.

Circleville's next meet is at Wilmington Tuesday. On Thursday the locals travel to Washington C. H. for a track encounter there.

120 yard high hurdles — Wood (C), McDowell (C), Taylor (FH). Time 16.3.

Scioto Downs Opening Date Drawing Near

The 1962 harness racing season is in full swing from coast to coast and just six short weeks remain before the June 1 opening of Scioto Downs.

Training sessions over the five-eighths mile track at The Downs are the current order of business for some eighty trotters and pacers, prepping for the coming season.

Many veteran campaigners are being put through their training chores, including such stars as Valiant Way, owned by the Belle Aire Farm of Washington, C. H. with a record 2:00 4-5, Eye Jay Cee, owned by L. J. Collins of Lancaster with a record of 2:01 2-5, Demon Raider with a record of 2:04 2-5, owned by Leo Van Rhoden of Mount Vernon and Duke's Minda in the Al Hurley stable.

But one of the most eye-popping performances to date has come from a member of the powerful Eddie Cobb stable currently training some 18 head. He is the young 3 year-old full brother to Great Pleasure, Hodgen's Surprise.

GREAT PLEASURE, the 1961 Ohio Horse of the Year, like Hodgen's Surprise, is by Hodgen out of Pleasant Surprise. Being trained by Cobb's assistant Buck Norris, Hodgen's Surprise is owned by Noel Simpson of New Zealand.

Charlie Hill's Hill Distributing stable is stopping over for a brief period at Scioto Downs on it's way to Northfield Park. Head trainer-driver Carl Larsen has the stable looking fit and ready for action. In addition to a select group of 2 year-olds, the promising Hill stable has a trio of proven pacers in the 3 year-old Good Flying, Candy Girl, and Cutie Hill.

Heading up the trotting division of the Hill stable is the fleet-footed Mona Hill who will campaign mostly in the select company of the IHTA trotters this season.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Marvin Eugene Hanley, who was killed on April 20, 1962, at the age of 17 years.
Our home has been so sad and lonely, Since you left this mortal coil.
We still miss you so very much, More than words can ever say.
To have, to love, and then to part, Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
God has given us the strength, To leave from day to day.
He has eased our pain and sorrow, And helped us all along the way.
Looking back with beautiful memories Along the road we trod,
We bless the years we had together, And leave the rest to God.
Sadly missed by father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanley, sisters, Evelyn, Rose Mary and Delores, brothers, Paul, Melvin and Donald.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Marvin Eugene Hanley, who was killed on April 20, 1959, at the age of 17 years.
Our home has been so sad and lonely. Since you left that fatal day, we still miss you so very much. More than words can ever say. To have, to love, and then to part. Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart. God has given us the strength. To go on from day to day. He has eased our pain and sorrow. And helped us all along the way. Looking back with beautiful memories. Along the road we trod. We bless the years we had together. And leave the rest to God. Sadly missed by father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanley, sisters, Evelyn, Rose Mary and Delores, brothers, Paul, Melvin and Donald.

1. Card of Thanks

Section 1. That it is necessary to issue bonds of the City of Circleville in the principal amount of $500,000 for the purpose of constructing improvements to the municipal waterworks system including elevated storage tank, additional transmission mains and treatment plant with all requisite valves, piping and other appurtenances, and said bonds will be dated approximately May 1, 1963, will bear interest at a rate estimated at four per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and will mature in thirty annual installments after their issuance.

Section 2. That it is necessary and this Council hereby determines that notes in the principal amount of $500,000 shall be issued in anticipation of the issuance of said bonds.

Section 3. That said notes shall be due the date of their respective issuance and shall mature one year from date of issuance of the first of said notes and shall bear interest at such rate not exceeding four per cent per annum, payable at maturity, as shall be determined by the Auditor, upon the private sale of said notes. Such notes shall be of such denominations as the Auditor may determine and may be delivered in installments as aforesaid for said improvement are required.

Section 4. That such notes shall be signed by the Mayor and Auditor, shall bear the corporate seal of the City of Circleville, and shall be payable at the Third National Bank, Circleville, Ohio and shall expire upon their date of purpose for which they are issued and that they are issued pursuant to this ordinance.

Section 5. Subject to rejection of said notes by the Treasurer for investment in the Bond Redemption Fund, said notes shall be sold by the Auditor at private sale at not less than their face value, and the proceeds of such sale shall be used to purchase said bonds authorized and directed to such purchase upon the proper fund and sale price. The proceeds of such sale shall be paid into the proper fund and used for the purpose for which said notes are being issued under the provisions of this ordinance.

Section 6. Said notes shall be the full general obligation of the City of Circleville and the full faith, credit and revenue of said City are hereby pledged for the prompt payment of the same. Section 7. During the period while such notes run there shall be levied on all the taxable property of the City of Circleville, an addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually not less than that which would have been levied if bonds had been issued without the prior issue of such notes; provided that the amount of such tax shall be reduced to the extent that surplus earnings of the waterworks required for the payment of interest and principal of such notes or of the bonds anticipated thereby.

Section 8. It is hereby determined that all acts, conditions and things required to be done precedent to and in the issuance of said notes, in order to make the same legal, valid and binding obligations of the City of Circleville, have happened, been done and performed in regular and due form as required by law, that the amount of indebtedness to be incurred by the issuance of said notes does not exceed any limitations of indebtedness now fixed by law.

Section 9. The Clerk of Council is hereby directed to forward a certified copy of this ordinance to the County Auditor.

Section 10. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety of the City of Circleville and its inhabitants and for the further reason that immediate issue of said notes is required for the letting of contracts for the construction of urgently necessary waterworks system improvements; wherefore, it shall take effect and be in force from and immediately after its passage and approval.

3 Novis Set For '500' Race

Radical Changes Made in Racers

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—The Novi, a rubber-tired rocket with a vivid history of excitement, death and disappointment in the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race, will be back in action Memorial Day.

There will be three Novi racers, in fact.

They've been dubbed Tropicana specials by owner Andy Granatelli and his sponsor, J.K. Housels Sr., Las Vegas sportsman and hotel magnate.

The cars are nearing readiness in the supercharger plant here of Granatelli, himself the holder of many stock car racing records.

A succession of Novis—named after the hometown of one of the first owners, Lou Welch of Novi, Mich.—has tried to win and failed since they first blazed into view at Indianapolis in 1941.

Death came to two drivers, Ralph Hepburn and Chet Miller; and handsome Duke Naion was almost burned to death in a fiery crash in 1949.

But Granatelli, 38, insisted today that engine defects were not the basic cause for the Novi failures at Indianapolis.

Outstanding changes include a weight reduction of several pounds and detuning of engines from 742 to 600 horsepower to provide greater reliability.

Chuck Stevenson, Costa Mesa, Calif., and Bill Cheesburg, Tucson, Ariz., have been engaged to handle two of the 1962 Tropicanas. A third driver is yet to be selected.

John Kobs was Michigan State's first full time baseball coach. He was appointed in 1962 and still has the post.

3 Novis Set For '500' Race

Radical Changes Made in Racers

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—The Novi, a rubber-tired rocket with a vivid history of excitement, death and disappointment in the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race, will be back in action Memorial Day.

There will be three Novi racers, in fact.

They've been dubbed Tropicana specials by owner Andy Granatelli and his sponsor, J.K. Housels Sr., Las Vegas sportsman and hotel magnate.

The cars are nearing readiness in the supercharger plant here of Granatelli, himself the holder of many stock car racing records.

A succession of Novis—named after the hometown of one of the first owners, Lou Welch of Novi, Mich.—has tried to win and failed since they first blazed into view at Indianapolis in 1941.

Death came to two drivers, Ralph Hepburn and Chet Miller; and handsome Duke Naion was almost burned to death in a fiery crash in 1949.

But Granatelli, 38, insisted today that engine defects were not the basic cause for the Novi failures at Indianapolis.

Outstanding changes include a weight reduction of several pounds and detuning of engines from 742 to 600 horsepower to provide greater reliability.

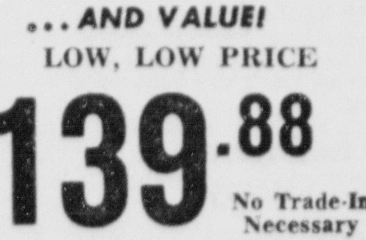

Chuck Stevenson, Costa Mesa, Calif., and Bill Cheesburg, Tucson, Ariz., have been engaged to handle two of the 1962 Tropicanas. A third driver is yet to be selected.

John Kobs was Michigan State's first full time baseball coach. He was appointed in 1962 and still has the post.

4-Point Plan For Mental Health Urged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A national mental health leader opened "Mental Health Week" here Thursday by calling for a four-point program to combat the growing problem.

Mrs. Daniel Murphy of Detroit, a member of the board of the National Association for Mental Health, urged this program:

1. Improved care and treatment of hospitalized mental patients;
2. Improved counseling of patients in community mental health agencies;
3. Improved services for released mental patients, including day and partial clinics, club and foster family care.
4. More and better staffed schooling for mentally ill children.

Honored at the Mental Health Federation - sponsored institute were six outstanding psychiatric aides:

Mrs. Cecile Sheets, Mount Vernon State Hospital; Adolphus DeArmond, Cleveland Psychiatric Institute and Hospital; Mrs. Dale Moore, Lima State Hospital; Mrs. Gertrude Gay, Youngstown Receiving Hospital, Youngstown; Mrs. Hazel Thayer, Massillon State Hospital; and Mrs. Mildred Holliday, Hawthornden State Hospital, Macedonia.

Nepotism Aids Painter Win $27,000 Suit

CLEVELAND (AP)—An unemployed Cleveland painter has won a $27,000 verdict with an allegation it was worth more to be a relative of the city recreation commissioner than to stand high on a civil service test.

A Common Pleas Court jury returned the verdict in favor of George Minarik, 52, Thursday after less than two hours of deliberations.

Minarik's attorney emphasized during the trial, which started April 9, that "nepotism must be curbed at city hall" for the public good. He had sought $50,000.

The jury, which awarded $7,000 in lost wages and $20,000 punitive damage, found against three defendants:

John S. Nagy, Cleveland recreation commissioner; George Hornyak, Nagy's nephew; Robert Keefe, superintendent of maintenance of the recreation division, and Lawrence J. Young, secretary of the Civil Service Commission.

Minarik claimed he was laid off to make room for Nagy's nephew, despite being ranked eighth on the civil service eligible list for a city painter. Hornyak was 37th.

Nagy said after the verdict he would confer with attorneys next week to decide whether to appeal.

United States about a Berlin settlement. The first talk of the present round was held Monday between Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin; another meeting is expected to be held soon when Dobrynin gets further instructions from the Kremlin.

About the only conviction presently held by American leaders with respect to Khrushchev's policies is that they seem to be in a state of transition. This is related to the Sino-Soviet situation as well as to reports of economic difficulties inside Russia itself. It is also related to Khrushchev's failure to move the Western powers away from their announced determination to maintain their forces in West Berlin and their access to it—even though they are prepared to negotiate on a variety of related issues.

The uncertainty of future East-West relations has generated keen interest here in two events due next week. The Supreme Soviet, Russia's parliament, is scheduled to meet Monday and Western officials expect a major policy speech from Khrushchev in the following days. The United States is expected to start nuclear weapons tests in the atmosphere during the week and the way in which Russia reacts should give further indications of Khrushchev's intentions.

For example, there is some thought in official quarters here that Khrushchev may have generated the lull in the Berlin dispute deliberately to create an opportunity for stirring up a new crisis there on the ground that the new U.S. test series has created a dangerous situation in the world.
